

Infants develop from head to toe and from the center of the body outward. Using classroom resources fill in a milestone and the month that a skill is accomplished for each body label below.

